This Week's Lineup:

8 Lions' Special Player

Lockport lost a wild and exciting game at Lancaster Friday night 42-28. Junior James Chambers, who ran for 119 yards on 12 carries, was a special teams demon in the loss. He also returned a kick and a punt for a touchdown

9 Crowley Steps in at OP

Orchard Park has rolled out of the gate to a 3-0 start in Class AA south. David Crowley is the next in line behind years of stellar senior quarterbacks at Orchard Park.

13 Leader of the Line

Cheektowaga came from behind to beat Lackawanna 35-18. The Warriors defense forced five fumbles in the win. Defensive lineman Mike Morganstern. Morganstern led the Warriors with 13 tackles on defense.

15 Cleve Hill on a Roll

Cleve Hill scored a pair of 3rd-quarter TDs and then used a ferocious defense to finish a 28-7 win over Akron. A major contributor thus far has been senior WR Brandon Davis, who caught 2 passes for 54 yards and made 7 tackles on defense.

Gilbert Honored for St. Joe's

St. Joe's head coach Dennis Gilbert has been named the Buffalo Bills' Coach of the Week after his Marauders beat arch-rival Canisius 34-20 last weekend.

Nigel Davis returned the opening kickoff 85 yards to give St. Joe's a quick 7-0 lead. Canisius never caught St. Joe's.

On the next offensive series, the Marauders stuffed Canisius on a fourth-and-4. St. Joe's took over on its own 42 and used a hook-and-lateral from Kelly to Yanni Zulia to Davis for 27 yards.

On the next play, QB Chad Kelly ran 31 yards for a TD and 14-0 lead just 3:50 into the game.

Davis finished the day with 126 combined yards rushing and receiving while scoring a rushing TD. He also intercepted a pass.

St. Joe's now leads the storied rivalry 46-30-3 against Canisius.

"This is the most important game on our schedule," Gilbert said. "I spoke to 6 of the guys who graduated from last year's team. There were four guys on our sidelines who played for me in 1988. They come back because it's the Canisius game and it's still important to them."

Gilbert, now in second season as St. Joe's head coach, took over for longtime coach Bob O'Connor.

Gilbert started at QB for O'Connor in 1983 and 1984.

"I got a full dose of Bob, first as a player and then as a coach," Gilbert said. "I learned a ton from him."

Gilbert works as a City of Buffalo Police Officer. He was with the Buffalo Housing Authority for three years before it was shut down in 2005. He took a job working with the New York State Inspector General's Office before joining the Buffalo Police force in 2007.

"I see a lot of bad stuff," he said. "A lot of pain and suffering at times. Seeing blood and death is difficult. But I also get the opportunity to help people that need help and protect people that can't protect themselves."

Before becoming a police officer, Gilbert managed a bar for several years.

"That was kind of like being a cop," he said with a laugh. "It was wild. You learn a lot about people. Unfortunately, you see people at their worst sometimes."

Gilbert says that coaching football is a huge relief from the stress of being a cop.

"I might go from a homicide scene to football practice," he said, "but I'm invigorated because these kids soak up everything. The passion they have for football makes you feel young again."

Gilbert played three seasons of varsity football at St. Joe's. He graduated in May of 1984 and was named the head JV coach in August of that same year.

"It was interesting to say the least," Gilbert said. "It was fun, it kept me in the game."

Gilbert had planned to play football at Canisius College after graduating from high school.

"I was going to play," he said, "but my dad told me that I should concentrate on school the first year. My plan was to get my grades up and then play for Canisius. But Bob O'Connor asked me if I wanted to coach at St. Joe's. Once I started coaching, I liked it as much as playing."

Gilbert says he gets the same feeling before a game that he did when he was a player.

"It's a competitive environment," he said. "You spend a lot of time on scouting and preparation. The kids are an extension of you. If they go out and stink, it's your fault. You didn't get them ready. You can be the smartest guy in the world but if you can't get your kids to buy into your program, you aren't any good."

Wowie, Howie!

South Park bounced back from an early deficit and the Sparks earned their first win of the season when they beat Lew-Port 40-7 last weekend.

"We had an awful start," coach Tim Delaney said. "We threw an interception on the first play of the game and they scored three plays later."

Maurice Howie.

Delaney said that much of the problem in 2010 was due to a young lineup that included a freshman, Maurice Howie, starting at quarterback.

"We weren't very good last year," he said. "We showed glimpses, but we couldn't finish games. But we won two of our last three games and started to get some confidence at the end."

In the win over Lew-Port, Howie, now a 5-9, 170-pound sophomore, had his best varsity game as he completed 16 of 25 passes for 319 yards and 4 TDs.

"He's still just a sophomore," Delaney said, "but he started every game as a freshman and threw for 1,000 yards. We expect a lot out of him."

South Park has been far more competitive this season. The Sparks lost to Class A powerhouse Williamsville South 27-6 and suffered an agonizing last-minute loss to Hamburg 19-18.

Howie earned the starting role at South Park before he was even a high school student.

"We didn't have anyone to play QB," Delaney said. "Maurice came with us to the passing league. He threw 3 passes and he was the starter. He's very coachable. He'll do whatever you ask him to do."

Howie is also a threat to run on every play.

"He has a great first move and can make people miss," Delaney said. "He's not afraid to run somebody over either."

South Park trailed 7-0 just minutes into the game but regrouped and scored the next 40 points.

"We've talked about that for a while," he said. "When things go bad, we have to get out of it. We have to find a way to not let it continue."

Delaney said he was encouraged by the Sparks ability to shake off the bad start.

"That has happened with us quite a bit the last two years," he said. "When bad things happened, we weren't able to get out of it and it snowballed."

Nigel Gives Canisius Nightmares

St. Joe's beat arch-rival Canisius 34-20 last weekend in the first Msgr. Martin Association game for both teams.

"We had a great week of practice," St. Joe's coach Dennis Gilbert said. "We finished earlier than scripted each day because the kids were so efficient."

Gilbert said he was encouraged by the early dismissals from practice.

"It really showed the focus that the kids had," he said, "and the focus was there all week."

Gilbert also said that his marauders were not overly emotional in the week leading up to the game.

"Last year, there was so much emotion," he said, "because we had lost to them 3 or 4 times in a row and it was really important for them to break that streak and turn the tide in the series back in our direction. This year, they were strictly focused on the task at hand, beating Canisius."

This was the 79th time the teams have played. The Marauders now own a record of 43-30-3 against their most heated rivals.

In this year's game, St. Joe's got an early spark when sophomore Nigel Davis exploded through a hole and returned the opening kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown.

"His nickname is Nightmare," Gilbert said. "He's a super kid; very quiet and doesn't say much. We almost take him for granted because he did so much for us as a freshman last year. We expect a lot from him and he's been producing every week."

Gilbert first saw Davis when he was playing in a youth football game against Gilbert's son.

"He broke free with a couple of moves," Gilbert said. "My son tried to run him down and couldn't catch him. I knew right then he was going to be good."

Gilbert was ecstatic when Davis enrolled at St.

Joe's for his freshman year. He immediately moved the 14-year old up to the varsity team.

"He started with us from Day One," Gilbert said. "At our first practice, our Athletic Director looked at me like I was nuts. I said, 'Just watch'. He was better than most of the varsity kids as a freshman."

Gilbert has had experience with a freshman on the varsity team before.

"Nick Hall was doing the same thing," Gilbert said. "Because Nick had been in that situation, he took Nigel under his wing. It didn't take long for the kids to see he belonged."

The only question Gilbert had was if Davis would shy away from contact with the older, stronger players.

"We scrimmaged Cathedral Prep last year," Gilbert said. "On the second play, he came up from the corner and really put a lick on the halfback. Nigel really put a big stick on him. That answered that question."

Now in his second varsity season, Davis starts at slot receiver but will also move to tailback when the Marauders switch into the I-formation.

He also starts at cornerback on defense as well as returning kickoffs and punts.

"His skill set is pretty good," Gilbert said. "He makes a move and he's gone. He also has an unbelievable football sense. I think his football knowledge is key."

Davis finished the win over Canisius with 40 yards rushing on just 5 carries. He also caught 4 passes for 86 yards and intercepted a pass on defense.

Gilbert says that even with that performance, Davis is still improving.

"We are three games into his sophomore season," he said. "He is still only 15 years old. He is beginning to play more explosively. He's still learning but he's gotten better each week."

Lockport's Multiple Threat

By Sean Bruso

Lockport lost a wild and exciting game at Lancaster Friday night 42-28. The Redskins led 35-7 in the 3rd quarter before the Lions climbed back into the game.

"The defense was the factor, we turned the ball over for TDs on three occasions," Lockport coach Greg Bronson said. "You take those away it's a much more even ball game, and you have a much better chance to be successful."

Another factor in the rally was junior James Chambers, who ran for 119 yards on 12 carries. He also returned a kick and a punt for a touchdown.

"He's very dynamic when he's in the open field," Bronson said. "The return game is where he really excels. He's fast enough to out run defenders but he's strong as well."

Bronson said Chambers showed his strength on his 77-yard TD run.

"After 20 yards, he was hit," Bronson said. "He put his hand on the ground, recovered and ran."

Lockport junior James Chambers.

In addition to tailback and kick return, Chambers lines up at slot receiver in the Lions' spread sets.

"He has some potential there," Bronson said. "A lot depends on how hard he pushes himself. He doesn't have D-1 size for a running back."

Chambers may also move into the defensive lineup.

"He's bugging us to play safety," Bronson said. "He may be able to play there at a fairly high level."

Chambers has accumulated 615 total yards thru three games. He is also averaging 10 yards per carry on offense, and has two touchdowns over 75 yards.

"He's respectful and a very level-headed kid," said Bronson.

Crowley Steps in at OP

By Sean Bruso

The Orchard Park Quakers have rolled out of the gate to a 3-0 start in Class AA south play. The Quakers, ranked 7th in New York State, beat West Seneca West 53-20 on Friday.

"We did well," coach Gene Tundo said. "Our kids played real well."

The Quakers performance was sparked by senior quarterback David Crowley, who completed 7 of 10 passes for 200 yards and 3 TDs.

"Dave played excellent," Tundo said. "Dave is a real calm and patient kid which helps us out a lot. He manages a lot of things. He is very smart, he knows where all of his receivers are and he throws a catchable ball."

Crowley is the next in line behind years of stellar senior quarterbacks at Orchard Park. He was the primary backup to Kyle Witkowski last year who played in the Kensington Lions Club All-Star game. "He and Kyle Witkowski had a great relationship, Kyle is a great kid, and both are baseball players," Tundo said.

Crowley served as the scout team quarterback for the Quakers last fall.

"I think he learned a lot," Tundo said. "He got better and better as the year went along. It really shows."

Tundo said that Crowley hopes to pursue baseball after high school.

"He is a pretty good student," he said. "I think if he continues to do well, he wants to play baseball at the next level. As the year goes on he'll get those opportunities."

Crowley's performances have garnered attention throughout the area.

"He has a great grasp of what he's doing," Tundo said. "He's done everything we've asked him to do."

Johnson is Special Talent

By Sean Bruso

McKinley improved to 2-1 this weekend following a 26-7 win at Iroquois last weekend. The Macks led 12-7 at the half and extended the lead after the break.

McKinley Coach Ed Wilson was pleased in his team's effort.

"It was a hard fought game," he said. "We pulled away in the second half."

Junior Stephen Johnson accounted for three TDs, one on the ground, one in the air, and he also returned an interception for a touchdown.

"Stephen fought hard and played well," Wilson said. "He's a leader. He's a tough kid and he works hard. He has played receiver since the 9th grade."

In McKinley's 34-29 win over North Tonawanda in the season-opener, Johnson came in at quarterback and ran for the game-winning touchdown to hold off a Lumberjack rally.

"He came in against NT won the game," Wilson said. "He outran the field. We had been working him at that spot, on and off, but the last play of the game he said 'I got it.' He basically just out-ran the end and the safety couldn't catch him."

Wilson is also high on Johnson's leadership abilities.

"It starts in the classroom," he said. "He is an excellent student. He has a legitimate 3.4 to 3.5 GPA, and it transpires over to the football field. He knows everybody's position and job. He is only a junior."

Johnson hopes to play collegiate football after graduation.

"Any school could try and get him," Wilson said. "He is interested in playing locally and staying within the state."

McKinley will play at Williamsville North on Saturday.

Lake Shore's Mighty Mite

By Sean Brusco

Lake Shore dropped a tough Class A South contest 41-15 to Williamsville South last weekend.

"I think the offense did very good," Lake Shore coach Chuck Kowalski said. "We were never able to put it in though. We were stopped three times in the red-zone. We played a real strong opponent and they made plays."

Wide Receiver John Inglut caught 7 passes for 80 yards in the loss.

The 5-6, 148-pound senior wide-out has been a driving force behind the Eagles all season long.

"He is a key part of our team," Kowalski said. "He has such sure hands. It doesn't have to be a perfect pass for him to bring it in."

In addition to his performance on offense, Inglut had a stellar day on the defensive side as the Eagles did not allow a TD through the air to South's potent passing attack.

"He is a quiet leader," Kowalski said. "He just does everything that's expected of him. It is incredible to watch him work. He can go a week with out saying anything. He just nods his head."

Inglut is also a team leader on the Lake Shore wrestling team, and will pursue wrestling at the collegiate level.

"He is a wrestler type," Kowalski said. "A tough wrestler."

And despite his lack of size, the senior is strong. Inglut is able to bench-press 235 pounds.

Inglut's academics are also sound, according to Kowalski.

"He is a good student," he said. "He comes from a good family. If he is not on the honor roll, I would be surprised."

Freshman Shines at Depew

By Sean Bruso

Depew improved to 3-0 Friday night with a tough 28-11 victory at Albion.

"Albion is a very good team," coach Dan McGrath said. "On the first possession they took the ball down the field and we stiffened up around the 6 yard line. We played a very good game from that point on. We forced 4 turnovers. It was a good game for our team offensively and defensively."

The Wildcats have not lost to Albion since 2002.

"We were able to control the line of scrimmage like we wanted,"

McGrath said.

While all the pre-season talk was about senior RB Joe Miller, another back emerged to complement Miller.

Freshman RB Rodney Turner scored 3 TDs in the opener against Cheektowaga.

Turner is the first freshman starter for Depew since Jason Berghold started in the 1997 season.

"He has brought a nice complement to Joe Miller and his style of play," McGrath said. "He has great vision and he's only a freshman."

Depew freshman Rodney Turner.

Turner has rushed for over 100 yards twice in the first three weeks, and has scored each week.

"What he does is he looks for someone to knock down," McGrath said, "and he can also make him miss."

Turner has had no problem stepping into the spotlight in a crowded Wildcat backfield.

"We don't feature anyone," McGrath said. "We expect him to be a part of it and to make a bigger contribution on defense."

McGrath stated that the freshman has easily fit in with the varsity.

"He is a very polite friendly outgoing kid," he said, "and he seems to make friends easily."

Burgard made the Class B semifinals in 2010. If the Bulldogs are going to make the playoffs this season, they need to start winning in a hurry.

One of the plays that will need to lead the way is Robert Sanders, who rushed 11 times for 68 yards and also made 9 tackles on defense in Burgard's loss to Tonawanda last weekend.

Lineman Leads Cheektowaga

By Sean Bruso

Cheektowaga came from behind to beat Lackawanna 35-18 in a B West matchup Friday. The Warriors defense forced five fumbles in the win.

"We started off slow," coach Scott Zipp said. "We were down 12-0 early. "Our defense pretty much shut them down offensively. For the course of the day our kids stood the test, and made some plays."

The key stand-out in the game was senior defensive lineman Mike Morganstern. Morganstern led the Warriors with 13 tackles on defense.

"He's a senior that does anything we ask him to do," Zipp said, "and he leads by example."

Despite being smaller than many linemen, Morganstern has garnered attention throughout WNY including receiving a Trench Trophy nomination in week two.

"I know he is not 6-6 and 300 pounds," Zipp said. "but he's one of the best defensive linemen in Western New York, without a doubt. He has quickness with his hands and feet. He gets off his block and makes his tackles."

On top of being a standout on the field, Morganstern has had tremendous academic success, carrying a 97 overall average.

"Has some stuff lined up with Kent State, UB, and Pittsburgh," Zipp said. "He could be a walk-on. He's the type of kid, when he gets on the weight program in college there is no doubt he can make a travel squad."

Zipp says that Morganstern is one of the Warriors top talents.

"He has never taken a down off," he said. "He's one of the best players we have."

Pioneer won a hard-fought game with Springville 26-19.

The Panthers rushed for 281 yards and had a back go over 200 yards for the second straight game.

The 3-0 Panthers have used a powerful running attack this season. The line has been led by junior OT Connor Johnson (6-5 315), who has been a standout all season.

Eden Powers Past Gowanda

Eden fell behind 8-7 after one quarter but flexed its muscles and roared to a 39-8 win over Gowanda last weekend.

"We scored 2 TDs in the second and third quarters," coach Chuck Tilley said. "Our line really took over the game."

The Eden defense held Gowanda to minus-50 yards rushing and recorded 8 sacks.

"Our line really controlled play," Tilley said. "We ran 62 plays and Gowanda ran 34."

Tilley says his players are upbeat after rebounding from a last-minute loss to Dunkirk.

"The mood is a good," he said. "The kids are pretty positive.

We lost a game in the last 30 seconds that we should have won but they are upbeat and determined to overcome some of our obstacles."

If Eden is going to qualify for the Class B playoffs, they will need their Double-Wing offense with its power running game to dominate games.

Senior captain Brian Agle, who starts at center, is a key part of the offensive line.

Eden senior Brian Agle.

"He's a real smart kid," Tilley said. "He makes all of our line calls. He makes the calls based on the defensive alignment and tells the other linemen what scheme we'll use on each play."

Agle (6-0, 265) also starts at nose tackle on defense.

"He has decent feet," Tilley said. "He plays low to the ground. He's a tractor type of kid. He'll dig you out and get a good push."

Tilley says that

Agle is a reliable force on the team.

"We know what we get out of him," Tilley said. "He's a good solid student. He's a quiet, forceful kid. He doesn't say a ton but when he says something his teammates listen to him."

Davis Leads Cleve Hill

Cleve Hill pulled away in the second half to beat Akron 28-7 last weekend.

"Akron was a tough and gritty team," coach Glen Graham said. "They were tough kids."

The Golden Eagles led 8-7 late in the first half but recovered a fumble on the Akron 20-yard line. After a screen pass got the ball to the 1, Darryle Spencer snuck in for a TD and a 14-7 lead at the break.

"That was big for us," Graham said. "That really gave us some momentum."

Cleve Hill scored a pair of 3rd-quarter TDs and then used a ferocious defense to finish the win.

"We were not happy with our defense in our first two games," Graham said. "The offense really carried us. We definitely are a more complete team and we are getting contributions from a lot of kids."

A major contributor thus far has been senior WR Brandon Davis, who caught 2 passes for 54 yards and made 7 tackles on defense.

"Brandon has been huge for us," Graham said. "He's the best blocker we have on the perimeter."

Davis, 5-9 and 185 pounds, was also a huge factor in the Eagles off-season efforts.

"He got all the guys organized," Graham said. "He got everyone involved with his Facebook page, which really became the Cleve Hill football page. We had a lot more participation than we've ever had."

Graham wasn't surprised that Davis (who has been timed at 4.5 in the 40) extended the extra effort.

"Brandon is a First Class young man," he said. "He does a lot of extra work on his own."

John Leads Warriors to 2-1

Salamanca improved to 2-1 with a 20-6 win over Catt-Little Valley.

The Warriors got off to a fast start as Jevon Battle returned the opening kickoff for a TD. Salamanca took a 12-0 lead on their next possession when Cameron Caputi punched in a 1-yard TD.

"After that, it was a dogfight from there," Salamanca coach Jason Marsh said. "Our kids played a complete game. We played for a complete 48 minutes. We didn't give up any points in the second half, something that has hurt us in previous games."

One of the reasons for the Warriors' steady play has been junior QB Tanner John. The 6-3, 190-pound junior has been the steady, guiding hand this season.

"Tanner had a real gutsy performance for us last week," Marsh said. "He had a hand injury that he played through. He is a real tough kid and will go out there and really battle for his team. It showed his heart and character."

John had played on the varsity as a sophomore where he started in the defensive backfield and served as the team's back-up quarterback.

This year, he stepped into the starting role.

"He is doing a fantastic job at quarterback," Marsh said. "He had a real good grasp of our offense. He knew it was his job to lose and he took over. He is a good leader and has good control of our huddle."

Salamanca, a predominantly senior-laden squad, has received the junior well.

"When you have a natural leader it doesn't really matter how old the kid is," Marsh said. "They exude confidence. It is just natural for him to play in that position."

Robbins Runs Randolph to 3-0

Randolph won a huge game over defending Class D champion Silver Creek, 40-21, last weekend.

Randolph led just 28-21 at the half but puled away with three TDs in the second half.

"We figured it was going to be a difficult game," Randolph coach Pat Slater said. "Just like all of our division games this year."

Slater said he didn't change much when the teams left the field at the half.

"We just said to keep your head together and don't panic," he said. "Just keep playing your game. The kids just picked up and the momentum kicked in."

The Cardinals running game also started to take over the game.

"We took control on the line," Slater said, "and the kids did a good job opening the holes."

Brent Robbins powered the running attack as he rushed for 212 yards and 4 TDs on 18 carries. Robbins scored on runs of 55, 48, 32 and 11 yards.

"Brent was kind of dinged up the first two games," Slater said. "This is really the first time he has looked like he was 100 percent. If our line can get out and get him some room to run, he's very tough to tackle."

Robbins was a member of the team that Slater took to the Carrier Dome as Randolph won the NYS championship in 2009. He was a back-up to Matt Hettenbaugh that season.

He became the starter last season and was named a Class D all-star.

"He followed some pretty good guys," Slater said. "He's a strong runner. He can run right through you and he can make you miss."

Freshman Boosts Eagles

Ellicottville improved to 2-1 on the season as the Eagles beat Panama 36-28 in overtime last weekend.

Zak Fisher ran for 137 yards and scored a TD to lead the offense. Fisher also intercepted a pass that ended the game in the second OT possession.

"Our kids are feeling great," coach Tim Bergan said. "We've won a couple of good football games."

Bergan is thrilled with the new DD League that group the smallest schools together in one league.

"We've been building something very good for three years,"

Bergan said. "The games are competitive and everyone has a chance to win almost every week. Our kids now have a chance to compete and a chance to play at the Ralph. We're all excited."

One player that will help Ellicottville this season is one of the smallest players in WNY, freshman Phalla Musall.

"He's small but he's quick," Bergan said. "He's a rocket."

Musall has toughness, despite the fact he is just 5-foot-3 and 130 pounds.

"I was afraid to use him in the first game," Bergan said, "but he's proven he can play. When we played Sherman we upped him to 6 touches and he's scored two games in a row now."

Musall scored a TD and a 2-point PAT in the win over Panama. He finished the night with 72 rushing yards on 9 carries and also caught a 16-yard pass. Musall also averages 26 yards on kick returns.

"He has returned kicks for us all year," Bergan said. "He does things you don't teach. You can't teach a kid to cut and when to bounce outside."

Smith Solid for St. Francis

By Sean Bruso

St. Francis lost a tight contest with Section V powerhouse Aquinas Saturday 34-20. The loss dropped the Red Raiders to 2-1 overall.

Star senior tailback Akeel Lynch rushed for 239 yards in the first half before leaving the game with an ankle injury.

"Their coach stated they would have been in trouble if he had been healthy," said St. Francis coach Jerry Smith.

One of the reasons Lynch had his success was due in part of the play of senior offensive lineman Joe Smith, son of the head coach.

"Joe had a bad ankle and also had a thumb injury and has been snapping left handed," said Smith. "Our coaches agreed he had one of his better games. He really came through for us, I don't think their big guy had a sack."

Joe Smith, a 6-0 210-pounder, has been very valuable to the program. Joe Smith has been a rare four-year starter on the line for the Red Raiders.

"The biggest thing that we have seen that over the summer he was like another coach on the field," Jerry Smith said.

"He took all of the linemen during workouts, organized line activities over the summer, get-togethers. He provided really great leadership, which is sometimes hard to come by."

Smith is being recruited "heavily" by Princeton, along with; Amherst College, Hamilton College, and Williams College.

Smith maintains an academic average of 97, and scored over 1100 on his SAT while recording a 31 on his ACT.

"He is really smart so there's not a lot he needs to be told, just some things that need to be clarified," Jerry Smith said.

Doggone Good

Justin Patterson and Alden have bolted to a 3-0 start

By Mark Adair

Alden improved its' record to 3-0 when the Bulldogs ran past Medina 33-7 last week.

Entering this season, Alden was questioned as a legitimate contender in Class B, despite the fact that the Bulldogs finished 10-1 last year and won the Section 6 Class B championship.

Last spring, Coach Dick Diminuco's squad lost a lot of high-profile players to graduation.

Tyler Stoldt, one of the school's all-time quarterbacks, is now playing at Edinboro.

Starting tailback Dakota Peel (1,076 rushing yards and 14 TDs) and WR Nate Bailey (25 receptions and 12 TDs) also graduated.

"We lost quite a bit of fire power," Diminuco said. "Those were some pretty good kids who left."

But, Diminuco said he was confident that he had a solid group of players coming in to fill any voids.

"Coming into the season, our JV team had won 17 straight ball games," he said. "We knew we had younger kids that could come in and win. We knew we would be young in spots with some kids that didn't play a lot last year. But we had confidence that we would be competitive and have a decent season."

Diminuco, entering his third year at Alden, has led the Bulldogs to two "decent" seasons. In 2009, Alden lost to Cheektowaga in the Section 6 title game. They won the title over Lackawanna last year.

"You don't just press a button and it happens auto-

Alden TB Justin Patterson has run for 638 yards and 8 TDs in three games this season. The Bulldogs are 3-0 and ranked 3rd in NYS Class B.

matically," he said.

"Hopefully we are running a program from the ground up. Our younger groups are pretty competitive."

Alden is currently ranked #3 in the latest New York State Class B poll.

"It's nice that we are #1 in the Western New York Small Schools poll," Diminuco said. "I guess we are getting some respect in the area. But the only poll that counts is the one at the end of the season."

This week, the Bulldogs will be playing a critical B East game when they face Albion, the school Diminuco coached at for 30 years before retiring from his Athletic Director's post three years ago.

"It's not a fun week for me," Diminuco said. "I don't look forward to playing them."

The game has acquired the nickname "The Diminuco Bowl", a media moniker that bothers the longtime coach.

"It's not about me," he said. "It's Alden playing Albion. It's Alden's kids playing Albion's kids. And they are big, strong and well coached and we'll have to play our best to beat them."

And despite all the distractions that come with Homecoming Week and the annual "Diminuco Bowl", the coach said his players have remained relatively calm.

"The kids are pretty focused," he said. "They really do work hard every day and they really do take it one game at a time. They are a fun group because they only think about the task at hand."

One player that has been really

Senior tailback Justin Patterson has propelled himself to the top of the Western New York Leader Boards - and his team to a 3-0 start.

"He's hard-nosed," Diminuco said. "He has deceptive strength and speed. He's a gamer and he loves to play the game."

In 2010, Patterson rushed for 220 yards and 3 TDs while serving as a back-up to Peel.

"He also missed 2 or 3 games with some arthroscopic knee surgery," Diminuco said. "He was injured in Week 4. He missed 3 games and then came back to play in all the playoff games."

Patterson, who is 5-9 and 170-pounds, worked hard in the off-season to make himself better.

"He's bigger and stronger this yea," Diminuco said. "He hit the weights pretty hard and he made himself a lot stronger."

Patterson also has a trait that is rare at the high school level, according to Diminuco.

"He's not a real big kid but he keeps his feet moving on contact," Diminuco said. "Even after a defender hits him he keeps his feet moving. That makes him very tough to bring down. That's tough to teach but you see a lot of the good ones do it."

Patterson also isn't slow by anyone's standards.

"He has good speed," Diminuco said. "It's deceptive. He's broken away for some long runs this year."

While he admits that his goal is to get back to the state tournament this fall, Patterson says that he tries not to think more than one day ahead.

"Right now, I'm just thinking about having good practices," he said. "I want to maintain my running. We have a great line blocking for me and it's working really well right now. I don't think we should change anything."

Patterson was hoping to get out of the gate fast.

"In the summer, I was shooting for a quick start," he said. "My second year of JV I had a good season and I was trying to bring that back. Last year, Dakota Peel was in front of me and he was a good running back too."

Patterson says he is thrilled with the 3-0 start.

"Our team is pretty strong," he said. "Our line is big and they can move. They can get to the second level and block. I know we are young in a lot of areas but we have a lot of juniors and a sophomore QB stepping up."

Patterson, who wants to major in Criminal Justice in college, says he also knows how important this week's game is to his coach. -

"He tries not to show it," Patterson said, "but everyone on the team knows what it means to him to play Albion for a Homecoming game."

TRAINING THE HEART OF A CHAMPION FROM THE INSIDE OUT

The Heart of a Champion Character Playbook theme is FINISH STRONG!

IT 'S NOT HOW YOU START THE SEASON, THE GAME OR LIFE.....BUT HOW YOU FINISH!!

This week's FINISH STRONG WORD IS Intensity.

Intensity: is a passionate, serious attitude that brings strength, power and energy to the tasks. (Be Strong, Courageous and DO IT)

Athletes and Coaches... to FINISH STRONG you have to believe (it is with your heart that you believe) that whatever you do you will work. Intensity is not looking at the reward of Gold. It is like the blacksmith hammering on the iron in the fire to forge the dream. Intensity is the middle linebacker's eyes of Mike Singletary, the bone-crunching hits of Dick Butkus or the complete MLB Ray Lewis.

Your intensity along the way will inspire others through your actions and words, as you bring a single-minded focus to your task. This seemingly uneventful intensity and discipline will produce a long-lasting imprint on those you love deeply from the heart.

The cost of regret far exceeds the price of discipline...

So fight the good fight, finish the race, and keep the faith! Be intense and ...FINISH STRONG!

Love, Coach Masters

Listen to 4 segments of CTF's Heart of a Champion! on the radio show Officially Yours on WECK 1230 AM each Thursday from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. We will have interviews with coaches and the Unsung Player-of-the-Week at 7:15, 7:45 8:10, and 8:40!

Are You Game?

Pop Warner's Boys

John Sopko is in his second year of a major rebuilding project as Springville's head coach. Last year, the Griffins finished 1-8, winning only the final game of the season against a winless Akron team in a Bowl game.

"We've had a few tough years now," Sopko said. "The program has been down for about 8 years now.

This season, the Griffins have made small steps forward. Springville beat Salamanca 21-14 in the opening game of the season. It was the first time the Griffins won their opening game in three years. It was the first win in a home opener since 2005.

"We needed that," Sopko said. "Our JV team won their first game, too. We are moving in right direction."

Springville followed that up with a 12-6 loss to Olean and a 26-19 loss to Pioneer. Both losses were much closer than expected.

"I feel good but the kids aren't happy with a good effort anymore," Sopko said. "They want to win."

While Springville has struggled in recent years, the Griffins are a program that, arguably, has more history than any other program in Western New York.

"We've had a lot of success and tradition here," Sopko said. "We had winning seasons for 35 years in a row. Springville was undefeated in 1939 and again in 1955. We had good teams through out the 1980s."

The Griffins also won a New York State title in 1993 with NYS Class B Player of the Year Mark Rendell.

But despite the long and storied history, Sopko says, the Griffins connection to their past was broken.

"I don't now how it happened," Sopko said. "I know we've had a lot of upheaval in the district. We've had six Superintendents and three principals in 12 years. We've had a lot of athletic directors. That's a total lack of stability and it affected the football program."

Sopko was quick to point out that the last head coach - Joe Marvin - probably deserved the least amount of blame.

"Joe was really in the wrong place at the wrong time," Sopko said. "It all came to a head when he was there but he really had nothing to do with why we bottomed out. It was just a lack of stability and consistency through the whole football program."

Sopko says that it didn't used to be that way.

"Mick Nugent was the coach here from the middle of the 1960s until end of 1988 season," Sopko said. "Dwayne Havens and Bob Schlageter were here for 35 years. They started our Little League program and we had a very good relationship with them. Jim Duprey was a JV coach who had a record of 180-6... which is ridiculous. We had a vertical alignment with all the programs. The play calling, the formations, the terminology - all the way down to how the center should grip the football - was the same. Somewhere along the way, we lost that vertical connection."

And so, after Sopko was named the head coach before the 2010 season, he was determined to re-make the connections that had been lost over the last decade.

And that includes reconnecting with the school's football history.

Sopko has become an expert on the most famous coach to ever walk the sidelines at Springville... Pop Warner.

Yes, THAT Pop Warner.

Glenn Scoby Warner moved to Springville when he was 10 years old. In his autobiography, Warner wrote, "During a recess period, we played a crude form of football using a pig bladder."

Pop Warner graduated from the Griffith Institute in 1889.

"Pop Warner actually coached a year of high school football at Springville Griffith Institute," Sopko said. "Pop Warner is buried less than a mile from the school."

Warner captained his football team at Cornell in 1892. He went on to become one of the most influential and famous coaches EVER. He coached at Georgia, Iowa State, Cornell, Pittsburgh, Stanford and Temple. He coached at the Carlisle Indian School with a player named Jim Thorpe.

Along the way, Pop Warner became synonymous with Youth football leagues across the country.

Sopko knows of this tradition... and encourages his players to embrace it.

"Of all the kids in the entire world that play football," he says, "Our kids are the only ones that get to play on Pop Warner's field. It's their identity, it's their heritage and it needs to be respected."

Sopko actually encourages his players to go and visit Pop's grave.

"A couple of kids have been up there," he said. "I think it's important for them to see it and actually have a moment to reflect. It really introduces them to their history. It's something to be proud of."
