This Week's Lineup:

8 Belica Back for Quakers

Orchard Park finished 11-2 last year and lost the NYS championship game to New Rochelle. Despite heavy graduation losses, the Quakers are loaded again this season. Senior C Adam Belica will anchor the line in 2013.

9 Corrao Leads Grand Island

Grand Island finished 7-2 and lost to Sweet Home 13-0 in the Class A semifinals in 2012. With 6 starters returning to both the offense and the defense, hopes are high for the Vikings this season. QB Quinn Corrao returns to lead the offense.

12 Bulldogs Have Bite

In 2012, Burgard finished 6-3 and lost to Depew in the first round of the Class B playoffs at All-High Stadium. The Bulldogs also have all-star Roderick Morrow, who started as a sophomore, returning to DE.

14 Golden Eagles Can Fly

Cleve Hill finished 8-3 and won the Class C title with a tense 22-20 win over Fredonia in Ralph Wilson Stadium. Cleve Hill has three all-stars returning to the field this season, including senior WR Jared Watkins.

Bills' Back with Coaching Awards

The Buffalo Bills and the National Guard are once again sponsoring the WNY Coach of the Week program for the 2013 season.

Each week throughout the 2013 season, the Bills and the Guard will recognize a Coach of the Week from WNY. The football program of the Coach of the Week will receive a $2,000 award. At the end of the season, a Coach of the Year will be chosen from the 11 weekly winners. The football program of the Coach of the Year will receive a $4,000 award.

Last year, Canisius coach Rich Robbins was named the Coach of the Year after finishing a perfect 11-0 season with the Msgr. Martin Association championship.

"I'm so proud of my coaching staff and our kids," Robbins said after learning of the award. "They bought into everything I was giving them for the program. With our schedule and the strength of our league, to go 11-0 is a great accomplishment."

The last Msgr. Martin Association team to finish a season unbeaten was St. Joe's in 1998. The last Canisius team to finish unbeaten was the 1976 squad that finished 7-0-1.

Robbins said that, after winning the title and finishing the perfect season, he heard from Canisius graduates from all over the world.

"I have received messages from our alumni from around the country," Robbins said. "I have emails from Canisius alumni that are in the military and overseas. That really brought it home to me that we did accomplish something very special."

Canisius beat Timon 28-20 in Ralph Wilson Stadium to win the school's first Msgr. Martin title since 2009. Qadree Ollison led Canisius as he ran for 195 yards and 3 TDs.

The teams were tied 14-14 at the half.

Timon recovered a Canisius fumble early in the third quarter and drove 77 yards for a go-ahead score. Adam DiMillo rushed in from the 3-yard line with 5:37 left in the third quarter. A missed PAT left Timon leading by 20-14.

However, Ollison began to pound away and the Canisius ground attack began to dominate.

After Timon took its only lead of the game, Canisius drove for a TD on the following possession. Ollison ran the ball on every play except one. He finished the drive when he rumbled 13-yards for the TD on 3rd-and-goal. Chris Alaimo kicked the PAT and gave Canisius a 21-20 lead.

Canisius held Timon bottled up deep in their own end and finally forced Timon to turn the ball over on downs at their own 12-yard line.

Canisius took advantage of the very short field and powered its way into the end zone, using Ollison in a bruising, methodical drive. With just 3:22 left, Ollison punched it in from the 3-yard line to give the Crusaders a 28-20 lead.

Canisius then forced Timon to turn the ball over on downs again after just 4 plays. The Crusaders ran for a first down and ran out of the clock.

Robbins says that his team is already talking about another perfect season in 2013.

Canisius coach Rich Robbins was named the Coach of the Year in 2012 by the Buffalo Bills and the U.S. National Guard. Canisius beat Timon in the Msgr. Martin Association title game at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

"We have a ton of talent coming back," he said. "and we have already talked about 22-0."

With two high-profile transfers into the Canisius program, the Crusaders look like the early favorites to repeat as MMA champs. But, with games against Aquinas and Ohio-powers Walsh Jesuit and Cardinal Mooney, another 11-0 season will be tough.

"We want to keep it rolling," Robbins said. "The juniors that are coming back want to go undefeated in their senior year, too."

Robbins said that since taking over the Canisius program, he has tried to run it as a family-operation.

"We are a program and a family," Robbins said. "We are a program for the 9th grader, the 55th kid on the team and the last guy on our bench. Everyone is an equal part of our family."

Iroquois-Sweet Home Renew Rivalry

Friday, 7:00 pm @ Iroquois

Throughout the first decade of the new Millenium, Sweet Home and Iroquois, developed one of the better rivalries in WNY. They met twice at the Ralph for the VI A Final, and 5 other times in the playoffs. These games also produced some of the most memorable moments in recent high school history. Seven playoff games that decided 6 Class A championships.

2002: Sweet Home 42, Iroquois 15 @Sweet Home

News articles after the game mentioned how Chiefs were physically outmatched in the game. It spurred Iroquois to develop a year round weight program. Sweet Home went on to beat Grand Island at the Ralph to win VI A.

2004: Iroquois 28 Sweet Home 6 @Sweet Home

The Chiefs used their improved "weight" program to shock the Panthers. Chiefs playoff run was also inspired by recent alum Mike O'Brien who was seriously injured overseas, his jersey was brought to the sideline for playoff games. Iroquois won the Section VI Class A title and set numerous State records in their regional 67-49 win over Eastridge at the Ralph.

2005: Sweet Home 28 Iroquois 19 @Sweet Home

In a game that went back and forth, Sweet Home made a goal line stand as Chiefs had 1st and goal from inside the 5 just before halftime. Sweet Home would score on their 1st possession of the 2nd half. Sweet Home would lose to Grand Island at the Ralph, the only time the winner of this game didn't win Section VI A Title.

2006: Iroquois 53 Sweet Home 20 @ Ralph Wilson Stadium

On the 2nd play from scrimmage, All-WNY Kyle Shevlin breaks his leg. Seldom used backup Wyatt Mariacher came into the game, threw 3TDs and returned an INT for a score as Chiefs won. This is still the highest scoring total for a winning team at the VI Finals at the Ralph. JV call-up Matt Corigliano ran for a Ralph record 94 yd TD run in the final minute.

2007: Sweet Home 25 Iroquois 20 @Sweet Home

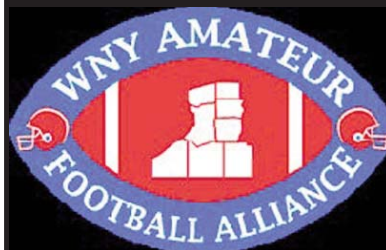

Sweet Home had made a gutsy 4th quarter comeback to win. Marcus Johnson ran behind Nick Christman at least four times on 4th down to keep drives alive, including a couple of "bring out the chains" first downs. QB Casey Kacz, who would leave the game after breaking his hand. Panthers would go on to beat Cheektowaga at the Ralph with back-up QB Mark Wolcott.

2008: Sweet Home 39 Iroquois 19 @ Ralph Wilson Stadium

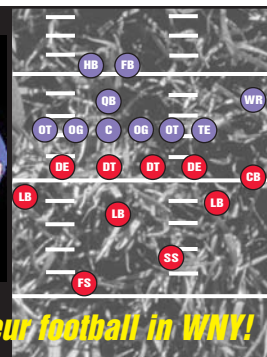

DeShanaro "DayDay" Morris would score 5 TDs and be a force on defense. In one of the Ralph's most iconic plays, Morris ran over referee Dick Schwede near the goal line. Schwede left the game on a stretcher. Sweet Home would win the NYS Title vs Burnt Hills.

2009: Sweet Home 34 Iroquois 6 @Sweet Home

Sweet Home got off to a fast start in this VI A Semi as they controlled field position in this extremely windy game. Passing and Kicking were a crapshoot. Going into the game, Sweet Home was ranked #1 in the State, while Iroquois was #6.

QB is Tough As a Bulldog

By Mark Adair

After two disasterous seasons, Kenmore East rebounded to finish 5-5 in 2012 and won the Class A Bowl Tournament championship.

"The two previous years were rough," coach Matt Chimera said. "We knew last year going into the season that we had a nice group of kids coming up from JV. I really thought we could be a decent team but that we needed some time and varsity experience."

The Bulldogs opened with losses to Grand Island and Sweet Home but won four of their final five games.

"We got on a roll and finished strong," Chimera said. "A lot of our kids started to fit in at the varsity level."

Kenmore East has a solid nucleus of skill position players returning to the roster. They will also get reinforcements from a JV team which finished 6-2 in 2012.

"We have a lot of good skill kids coming back," Chimera said. "Our JV team had their best record since I have been here. We have some good players coming in."

The Bulldogs will also have QB Connor McMahon returning for his senior season.

"Connor has been our starting QB since he was a sophomore," Chimera said. "He's a tough, tough kid. He's not very big but he works his ass off."

McMahon passed for 582 yards and 5 TDs last season. He also rushed for 146 yards and a team-high 6 TDs.

"He's a very good runner," Chimera said. "He makes things happen with his legs."

Chimera says that McMahon has become a solid leader for the Bulldogs.

"We'll rely on his leadership this year," Chimera said. "He's a good leader who has really grown in the last couple of years. Two years ago, he was a 10th grader leading seniors, which is a tough thing to do. Last year when we had that run at the end, I saw him grow as much as anyone."

McMahon says he is looking forward to building on the Bulldogs' Bowl title from last season.

"I'm excited," the senior said. "We have a lot to look forward to. We have a lot of returners who worked hard in the off-season. We got a touch of winning last year but that makes us even more hungry to win this year."

McMahon, who is just 5-9 and 150 pounds, has also played three years of varsity football while battled a medical condition that makes it difficult to gain any weight.

"Pound-for-pound he is our toughest kid," Chimera said. "He works hard in the weight room but just can't gain weight. He lifted hard all year long for three years and just can't put on any weight."

McMahon has a rare disorder called Maple Syrup Urine Disease, an metabolic disorder so rare that only three kids in NY State have been diagnosed with the disease.

"It's an Amino Acid deficiency," McMahon said. "I can't have any meat, cheese or fish. I have to be very careful with my diet. If I can take care of my disease, I'm fine. But if I don't take care of it and burn a bunch of calories, I'll get sick."

Keeping MSUD under control requires careful monitoring of blood chemistry and involves both a special diet and frequent testing.

"I have to take a supplement," McMahon said. "It's like a milkshake and I have to drink it every day. Once in a while, I'll have to drink it at halftime because I'm not feeling well."

Chimera says that McMahon proves his toughness with every practice and every game.

"Most kids who have his problem can't play football," Chimera said, "or even anything else. He has days where he is not 100 percent and we just have to recognize that."

McMahon says he is lucky to be playing football - or doing anything else.

"Most kids who have this aren't fully mentally developed," he said. "They end up mentally retarded and are physically incapable of playing anything. Newborn screening saved my life. I am so thankful to be in the position I am. I feel lucky."

McMahon says that a liver transplant may be in his future.

"I really don't need it right now," he said, "and I feel that should not take a liver from somebody who really needs it."

He also says that, despite what people may think, being 5-9 and 150 pounds is not a handicap on the football field.

"It's not the outside that's important in football," McMahon said, "it's the inside. If you don't have the heart to stick your nose in there and make a play, it doesn't matter how big you are."

QB Connor McMahon will start his 3rd varsity season for Kenmore East. McMahon has battled a serious medical problem while leading the Bulldogs.

NOTEBOOK

QB Dan Bronson led Lockport to a 6-3 record in 2012. The Lions won the AA North title, losing only to Orchard Park (twice) and St. Joe's.

In the playoffs, Bronson passed for 215 yards and 2 TDs as the Lions rallied from a 27-0 deficit to beat Clarence 42-35 in OT.

Belica Back to Lead Quakers Line

Orchard Park senior Adam Belica.

Orchard Park finished 11-2 last year and lost the NYS championship game to New Rochelle. Despite heavy graduation losses, the Quakers are loaded again this season.

"Five of our 6 offensive linemen are coming back," coach Gene Tundo said. "I'll take that over anything. The line is the major starting point and we are in a good place there."

Senior C Adam Belica will anchor the line in 2013.

"He's a hard worker," Tundo said. "He started his sophomore year. He was just 14 years old and we won the state title."

Belica packs a lot of power in his 5-10, 260-pound frame.

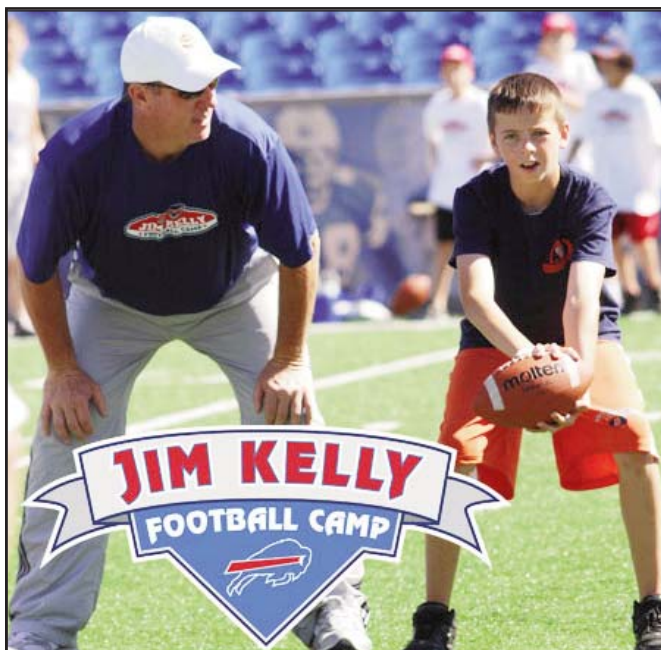

"He's athletic and has great feet," Tundo said. "He plays attack on the lacrosse team. He's very agile, especially for a 260-pound lineman."

Belica is an emotional player.

"He's the most vocal kid I've had in the last 15 years," Tundo said. "He gets real fired up. He knows the blocking schemes. He'll play hard and he'll do a good job."

Vikings Solid with Corrao back

Grand Island senior Quinn Corrao.

Grand Island finished 7-2 and lost to Sweet Home 13-0 in the Class A semifinals in 2012. With 6 starters returning to both the offense and the defense, hopes are high for the Vikings this season.

"We have 3 starting linemen and 3 others who saw a lot of time coming back," coach Dean Santorio said. "One of the strengths of our team will be up front."

The Vikings also have QB Quinn Corrao returning to lead the offense.

"He was efficient and ran the offense really well," Santorio said. "We expected him to have a good year but he exceeded all of our expectations."

Corrao passed for 1,200 yards and 13 TDs last year. He was also a standout pitcher for the Grand Island baseball team.

"That's his big passion," Santorio said. "He'll definitely try to pitch in college."

Corrao is also a solid student with a 3.6 academic average.

"He wants to learn and is very coachable," Santorio said. "He's a great leader. The other kids trust him and follow him."

Williamsville East senior Chris Tideswell.

Williamsville East finished 5-4 in 2012 and lost to Sweet Home in the first round of the Class A playoffs. The Flames have made the playoffs in 2 of the past 3 seasons.

"I know it's a cliché but we just want to get better each week," coach Chris McDuffie said. "We need to take care of every game on our schedule, one week at a time. That starts with Riverside in Week 1."

The Flames will be helped by the return of all-star DT Chris Tideswell, who is back for his senior season.

"He started on defense," McDuffie said. "but he'll be a two-way starter this year."

Tideswell (56-2, 300) will provide some beef to the Flames lines.

"He's a big, strong kid," McDuffie said. "He just overpowers guys. He's a very knowledgeable football player and he puts himself in positions to be successful."

Tideswell is also an emotional player.

"He's a fiery young man," McDuffie said. "He motivates and gets the other guys going. He leads by example but he can be vocal when we need it."

West Seneca East senior Devin Lindner.

West Seneca East finished 9-1 and lost to Sweet Home in the class A title game in Ralph Wilson Stadium.

The Trojans also lost starting QB and Connolly Cup finalist Andy Smigiera, who will play at Robert Morris this season.

Devin Lindner, who was Smigiera's back-up last season, will step in to call the signals

"I can't say enough about what Devin has done in the off-season," Maurino said. "He is very disciplined and coachable. He started on the JV team as a sophomore."

Lindner may not electrify crowds with his speed like Smigiera did.

"He'll be a different type of QB," Maurino said. "He's a big kid and he'll run it in between the tackles. He'll be tough to bring down."

Lindner will also return to a starting role at DE this season.

"He uses great technique," coach Jim Maurino said. "Devin is very fast and physical player. He's a great pass rusher and teams don't want to rush to his side either."

Morrow Back for Burgard Defense

Burgard junior Roderick Morrow.

In 2012, Burgard finished 6-3 and lost to Depew in the first round of the Class B playoffs at All-High Stadium.

"We have a lot of guys returning," Burgard coach Jason Kolb said. "We started seven sophomores and a lot of them got a lot of varsity experience. They have a full year of learning under their belts."

Kolb says that most of his returning players are at the line positions. Cousins Emanuel and Tiawon Moss will provide size at the tackle positions. Emanuel is 6-6, 250 while Tiawon stands 6-3 and weighs 240.

The Bulldogs also have all-star Roderick Morrow returning to DE.

"He's not the biggest kid on the field but he had 106 tackles last year," Kolb said. "He'll come out of nowhere and make a big play or a sack. He gets off a defender and sheds blocks very well."

Morrow, who started as a sophomore in 2012, will also be a key factor on the OL.

"He has great feet, he can move and is not afraid to hit anybody," Kolb said. "He's exciting to watch."

Springville senior Brandon Ball.

In 2012, Springville started 0-4 before rebounding to advance to the Class B title game at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Springville's run ended with a loss to Alden and the Griffins finished 5-5.

"We had no expectations for a while," coach John Sopko said. "We have to learn to play with expectations now. We start with a league game which makes it even more important to get off to a good start."

First team all-star Brandon Ball returns for his senior season at DE and an OG. Ball was named a team captain this year.

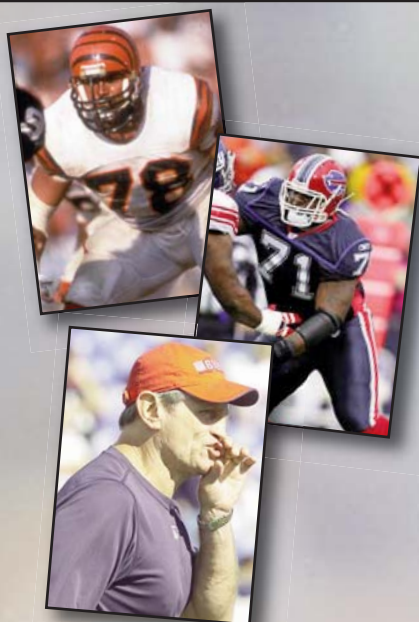

"Brandon is fully committed and invested in the program," Sopko said. "He never took any time off. His off-season work started the day after we lost at the Ralph."

Ball, who maintains an academic average of 98, will also kick PATs and FGs for the Griffins.

He's a great kid," Sopko said. "He's one of the top kids in his class and he works at his mom's restaurant. He's looking at extremely good academic schools that also play quality football."

Cleve Hill senior Jared Watkins.

Cleve Hill finished 8-3 and won the Class C title with a tense 22-20 win over Fredonia in Ralph Wilson Stadium. It was the second straight year that the Eagles played at the Ralph.

Cleve Hill has three all-stars returning to the field this season, including senior WR Jared Watkins.

"If you see Jared in street clothes you would never think he is a football player," Graham said. "but he ius a fantastic competitor."

Watkins (6-1, 140) is always a deep threat. "He is physical, smart and has fantastic speed," Graham said. "We've been watching him make plays since he was in the 7th grade. I couldn't wait for him to get to the varsity."

Watkins caught 31 passes for 481 yards and 6 TDs in 2012. He also intercepted 7 passes on defense.

"Jared is one of the most laid-back kids I have worked with," Graham said. "You never know he's there. He's easy to work with but he is a ferocious competitor."

Gowanda senior Brennan Geiger.

The Gowanda Panthers are hoping to rebound from an 0-8 season in 2012.

"Last year was tough," coach Sean Gabel said. "It was tough on the coaches and the kids. Nobody wants to go 0-8."

Gabel said that his players were

"I never saw helmets being thrown," he said. "No swear words. Our kids were respectful and always behaved properly. Our team dinners every Thursday were positive. They were a great group of kids."

Gowanda will lean on senior RB Brennan Geiger to carry the rushing attack. Geiger rushed for a team-high 644 yards in 2012. He also caught 6 passes for 85 yards and a TD.

"Brennan is everything you need," Gabel said. "He's a workaholic and a perfectionist. He does the best he possibly can and he always wants to do better."

Geiger also plays basketball and runs track for Gowanda.

"As a leader, he is remarkable," Gabel said. "He's a good student in the classroom and he's in Student Council."

Randolph senior Cody Oldro.

Randolph finished last season 11-2 and won the NYS title in Pat Slater's final season.

Brent Brown, an assistant coach under Slater for 23 years, will take over the program as the new head coach.

"We want to try and make this change as seamless as possible," Brown said. "We'll stick with what we have done for the last 30 years. We would be foolish to change a lot."

The Cardinals have a solid group of returning starters, led by OL Cody Oldro.

"He's gotten bigger," Brown said. "He is tremendously athletic for a kid that size. He has good speed and he's a physical player."

Oldro, a 6-3, 245-pound senior, will start at RG and MLB for the 3rd straight year.

"He does a good job at both those spots," Brown said. "He's got a good nose for the ball on defense."

Oldro started last season at FB but moved back to OL after Randolph started 1-2.

"Our team turned around when we moved him back to guard," Brown said.

"We won 10 straight games with him back on the line."

Kopp Returns to lead Panthers

Franklinville senior Peter Kopp.

Franklinville finished 5-4 in 2012 and won the D Bowl championship.

"We were 4-5 the previous year," coach Mark Blecha said. "For the kids who had been with us for 3 and 4 years, winning the D Bowl was huge."

While Franklinville suffered heavy graduation losses, the Panthers will have their two best players return this fall. QB Peter Kopp and team MVP Jamie Greiner both return to starting roles.

"We graduated almost everybody from last year's team," Blecha said. "We only have two seniors but they have been the team leaders for a couple of years now."

Kopp, a senior, will start his 4th season as the Panthers signal-caller.

"He's fast," Blecha said. "He has good football speed. He's also tough as nails. His leg could be broken and he would still play."

Kopp isn't big but he is a physical player. "He loves to hit," Blecha said. "Most QBs don't, but he loves it. He's a leader and all the kids look up to him. They have their eyes glued to him in the huddle."

Tigers Byrne-ing for Title Shot

Timon senior Ryan Byrne.

Bishop Timon finished last season with a misleading 6-5 record. By the end of the season the Tigers were one of the toughest teams in WNY. They lost to Canisius 28-20 in the Msgr. Martin Association title game in Ralph Wilson Stadium.

"Two different times we had the ball and a chance to go ahead," coach Charlie Comerford said. "But Canisius is a good team and we just didn't get it done."

Timon will be helped this season by the return of G-DT Ryan Byrne, who is back for his senior season.

"He's a great kid to have on the team," Comerford said. "He's big, he's physical, he's mean. He gives 100 percent in the weight room and on the field."

Byrne, who is 6-0 and 250 pounds, also starts on defense for the Timon hockey and lacrosse teams.

"He's athletic and quick," Comerford said. "Not many 250 pounds are playing hockey. He's one of the best linemen in Western New York. If there is a better kid out there, we'd love to have that kid too."

CTF's vision is to develop the hearts of coaches and athletes to be men of character for others.

Cross Training Football is now working with 40 teams across WNY (Thank you to all who are in the process) This year's Theme is ANSWER THE CALL

The letter A stands for being Attentive: To be "attentive" means to listen and watch carefully with INTENSE concentration. Simply put, have Eyes to see and Ears to hear.

Being attentive is the key to being in the moment, and understanding what needs to be done. The question is: are you ready for Week One! Stands will be full, cheerleaders will be cheerleading, student sections will be going crazy. But will you have the will power to block that all out and focus on the task at hand?

Will you execute your assignment, will you do your 1/11 on each and every play until the whistle is blown?

The how is in this belief statement.

"Be on Guard" and purpose in your heart to stay the course. In other words will you be attentive from the opening kickoff till when the clock reads 00:00?

The decision is yours! Be alert and be attentive, focus on the task and beat your opponent to the punch !!! If you as a team believe, think, love, and work all together you will not only be COMPLETE but you will ANSWER THE CALL!

Act justly, love mercy and walk humbly!

Raise The Curtain

Steven Stauss and Albion are ready to step into the Spotlight

By Mark Adair

Later this week the curtain will go up on the 2013 Western New York football season.

Friday night, the Albion Purple Eagles will take the stage and try to avenge a tough 33-30 loss to Barker-Roy-Hart in Week 3 last fall.

"It's absolutely a big test right off the bat," Albion coach Tony Osburn said. "Barker is well-coached and they are a good football team."

Albion lost to Barker in the final seconds when Barker's Jacob Haight kicked a 35-yard field goal in the rain. Barker had entered the game still mourning their teammate Tyler Miller, who died in his sleep earlier that week.

"They lost their friend and teammate that week," Osburn said. "For him to make that kick in the rain... It was just an incredible ending to a great game and a very emotional night."

Albion finished 2-6 last season but Osburn is hoping that his young squad will be ready to steal the show.

"We got a lot of young kids and we had a very tough season last year," Osburn said. "Most of the defense and the offense is back."

Osburn says that he is hoping that the bulk of his roster will benefit from the growing pains the Eagles suffered in 2012.

"We're excited," he said. "We were at camp this summer and we were working on adjustments instead of teaching right from the beginning. Most of the kids on the field have been through a varsity season. We had to go through some bumps last year but we've got a lot of kids back and they know what they are doing."

since he entered Albion as a freshman.

"Every year, he has gotten better and better," Osburn said. "He listens. He makes improvements. I have no expectations other than that he will get better again this year, just like he always has."

Stauss is already on the recruiting lists of several college programs and is getting noticed around the state. He was selected for the Rising Juniors Upstate-Downstate game and would have played but the game was cancelled.

"He's big, strong and knows where everyone should be at all times," Osburn said. "Once he gets his hands on someone, they will go in whatever direction he wants

The Purple Eagles will have a veteran offensive line. Senior Steven Stauss will lead a unit that has three players returning for their 3rd varsity seasons.

Stauss is 6-6 and weighs 295 pounds and is poised to take center stage in Western New York. Osburn said that he worked hard to get ready for the 2013 season.

"He's down under 300 pounds for first time since he started playing with us," Osburn said. "He's real excited about that. He wanted to get his feet a little quicker and we can already see the improvement."

Osburn said that Stauss set a goal to play at less than 300 pounds this season.

"He's a good kid and a hard worker," Osburn said. "When he gets something in his mind, he's not going to be stopped."

Osburn says that Stauss has shown steady improvement them to go. I would hope he would be a Trench Trophy finalist this season because he is that good."

If Stauss is ready to take a leading role on the football stage, maybe it's because he has experience with performing in a leading role.

Stauss earned leading roles in the past two Albion High School musicals.

In 2012 he played the role of Captain VonTrapp in the school's production of The Sound of Music. This past spring, Stauss played the role of Lumiere, the candlestick, in Beauty and the Beast.

"As a little kid I was always in the chorus and the choir," Stauss said. "I got into acting and the musicals in my 8th grade year at Oakfield-Alabama. Singing, dancing and acting is something I love to do. I took dancing for five years and I think it helps with my footwork in football."

Osburn admits that it is rare for a football player to also play such a big part in the theatre department.

"You could coach for 20 more years and not get many kids across your plate like Steven Stauss," he said. "He has the lead in the school play the last 2 years. When he's done with play practice, he comes into the weight room and squats 400 pounds. He's a special kid with a lot of different talents. He doesn't fit the mold of an offensive lineman."

Stauss, a team captain, is being actively recruited by several college football programs, including Buffalo, Syracuse, Boston College, New Hampshire, Albany, Bucknell, Wagner College and Division III Hobart.

"Harvard and Yale have asked about him, too," Osburn said, "but I think he's just a little under their academic benchmark."

Stauss maintains an academic average of 92 and has scored a 1030 on his SAT.

"He works hard in the classroom just like he does with everything else," Osburn said. "He won't have an issue being accepted academically to any college that wants him. He's from a great family. Both his mom and his dad were athletes in college. His dad played football at Cortland State."

Osburn says that he will rely heavily on Stauss this season, like he has in past seasons.

"He's a team captain," Osburn said. "If we need something done, big or small, he's the guy we go to, the kids know he's been around a long time and they listen to him."

Stauss says that he has high hopes for his senior year.

"We have a lot of returning starters with experience," he said. "Our line has three guys back who are 3-year starters and the team chemistry is great this year. I think we have a good chance to win the league and be a contender for the Section 6 finals."

A run to the Ralph would get Stauss noticed.

"Some people know who he is," Osburn said. "But kids get noticed when the team does well. Going 2-6 in a good division won't get you noticed. If your team gets recognized, you get recognized. If we can make a splash this year, he'll be right in line for a lot of the awards at the end."

FOCUS ON

Three Legends Leave

Western New York football lost three legendary coaches this past off-season.

Alden's Dick Diminuco, Randolph's Pat Slater and Ellicottville's Tim Bergan all announced that they were leaving the sidelines... taking 618 wins with them.

While Orchard Park and Sweet Home were defeated in the Carrier Dome, Randolph won the school's third NYS title when the Cardinals beat Tuckahoe 28-7 in the Class D game.

As the clock wound down on the victory, Randolph coach Pat Slater was seen on the sidelines with tears streaming down his face.

He looked at a reporter and said simply, "That's it. I'm done."

And just like that, after 34 seasons on the Randolph sidelines, Slater retired.

He says he did not know exactly why he chose that moment to walk away.

"I guess when you couldn't ask for anything better, it's the right time to leave," he said. "I had been thinking about it for a while. Finally, I thought that maybe this was the right time."

Diminuco will leave Alden after four seasons - the most successful 4-year run in the school's history.

Diminuco took the job at Alden after retiring as Athletic Director and coach at Albion where he had coached for 31 seasons.

Diminuco leaves with 243 wins on his record, five Section 6 titles and countless league championships. He led the Bulldogs to the past 3 Section 6 titles as Alden won 31 of 34 games over that span.

"It's really incredible what those kids accomplished," Diminuco said. "I feel that they don't get enough credit for what they accomplished. They lost three games in three years and every team they lost to went on to win the state championship. I really feel that the program did not get the recognition that it deserves."

Diminuco accepted an assistant job at Brockport State this fall.

During the winter months, longtime Ellicottville coach Tim Bergan announced that he was retiring as head coach of the program. Bergan was with Ellicottville 41 years, the last 28 years as head coach.

Bergan led the Eagles to the Class DD title at Ralph Wilson Stadium with a win over Clymer. He became the first WNY coach to win Section 6 titles in four different decades. Bergan, who retires with 161 career wins, led the Eagles to titles in 1985, 1991, 2004 and now 2012.

The ONLY Sport

I went to lunch at Papa Grande's the other day and I saw my friend Otto Slamkowski sitting on a stool. He had a crumpled copy of the Football Weekly in his back pocket and he was chomping on his ever-present cigar.

Otto had the Buffalo News open and was reading Mike Harrington's column.

"Hey, Otto," I greeted him. "What's Mike got to say about the sports world today?"

"Nothin'," Otto said. "He didn't write about sports at all. Just a bunch of crap about the Red Sox and the Yankees and a bunch of other stuff nobody cares about."

"What the heck are you talking about?" I asked, incredulous. "A lot of people care about the Yankees. The Yankees have more fans than any sports team in the world."

"The Yankees are not a sports team," Otto growled. "They are a baseball team."

"Baseball isn't a sport?"

How can baseball not be a sport," I asked, growing a bit uneasy. I had a feeling that I should have left this subject untouched.

"Did you ever try to actually watch a baseball game?" Otto asked sarcastically. "I'm usually asleep by the second inning. Heck, a perfect game in baseball is when nothing happens! It may as well be soccer."

"Okay," I said. "I understand that some people like more action. But what about basketball? There is almost continual action in basketball."

"Yeah, until you get to the last three minutes of the game," Otto said. "Then there is an unending parade to the foul line interrupted only by each coach taking all 15 of their allotted timeouts. I once turned on a basketball game and there were 6.7 seconds left. I went out and mowed the lawn and when I came back there were still 3.4 seconds left. So I went back out and changed the oil in my truck. When I came back in some guy hit a buzzer-beater to win the game. Besides, a real sport requires contact. When contact occurs in basketball, they call a foul."

"Well," I said, "there's lots of action in hockey and there's a lot of contact, too."

"Hockey is pretty cool," Otto said grudgingly, "but it ain't really a sport because they allow fighting. If they got rid of the fighting I might reconsider. Real men don't handle their frustrations on the playing field by throwing fists. They simply flatten their opponent with a good, clean shoulder-to-the-mouth on the next play."

"I see. So what about women's sports?"

"The only girls that play sports are those girls in that semi-pro football league," Otto said.

"I bet some Olympic ice skaters would disagree with you," I said.

"Ice skating is stupid," Otto said. "The only thing that would make ice skating a sport is if they sent all those girls out onto the ice to do their Triple Toe-Loops at the same time. The way you would win is to knock the other girls off their skates and onto their butts. If a girl got knocked down she would be eliminated. Last girl standing wins the Gold."

"Then you must think that Roller Derby is a sport."

"Don't be a jerk," Otto sneered. "Roller Derby and Professional Wrestling are scripted shows. They may as well be boxing."

"But there are lots of people that don't like football that are into sports," I said. "Just look at the sports pages. There is wrestling -"

Otto interrupted.

"Two guys rolling around on a mat in their underwear. Lovely."

I continued. "There is cross country -"

"Cross Country isn't a sport," Otto said. "Running four miles over hills and through mud is exercise for do-gooders that eat tofu and bean sprouts for lunch every day."

"Well, what about Golf?" I asked.

"Anything that requires you to get out of the way and let somebody else play through isn't a sport."

"Tennis?"

"Ping Pong on grass."

"I guess that leaves Bowling," I said.

Otto started laughing.

"What's so funny?" I asked.

"I'm in a bowling league," Otto said.

"And you don't consider it a sport?"

"Heck, no!" Otto roared. "Look at me! I'm sixty-three years old. I smoked cigars since I was 12 and the only exercise I get is when I go out and sit on my riding lawn mower and cut the grass. If I can bowl, it ain't a sport."

"Well, look," I said, "I do agree that football is the best sport but -"

"Wrong," Otto said. "Football in the ONLY sport. Everything else is a game."
